

NOVEMBER WEDDINGS

Rappahannock Christian Church the Scene of Brilliant Ceremony.

MISS HUNDLEY THE BRIDE

Married to Mr. Burwell Ware, of Ware's Wharf—The Church Beautifully Decorated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DUNNSVILLE, VA., November 1.—A wedding of wide interest took place at Rappahannock Christian Church this evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Pearl Garnett Hundley, of Dunnsville, became the bride of Mr. Burwell Ware, of Ware's Wharf.

The wide popularity and the long list of relatives and friends of both parties brought together an assembly representing not only the flower and chivalry of Essex, but reaching from the seashore of this State to the mountains of West Virginia. The decorations were elaborate in tanks of white chrysanthemums and graceful festoons of running cedar.

An aisle of flowers formed by eight little nephews and nieces of the bride and groom made a lovely picture in the flood of light from antique candelabra and other more brilliant illuminations.

At the time-honored strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march floated on the crisp air and filled the aisles and gal-eries of the sacred structure, the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr.
Preston Hundley, who wore a lovely white velvet "Marriage Vow," entered and advanced towards the "altar of flowers," while from the vestry room came the bridegroom, Mr. Burwell Ware, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Catoxy Ware, came, and in the second aisle of living flowers they met, and together marched on to solemnize their pledged faith.

Rev. John T. Hundley, a brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. William Latane, an uncle of the groom, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Willard D. Hoskins, of Dunnsville, and Mrs. W. W. Hume, of Raleigh, W. Va., sisters of the bride, stood as bridesmaids, while Miss Elizabeth Hundley, a niece of the bride, gracefully bore the ring, attended by her little cousin, Master William Hume Hoskins.

Misses Susie Ware Warner and Janet Latane, attired in white mousseline de silk and green girdles, bearing fans, were bridesmaids. Misses E. M. Ware, Jr., Charles Sale, Lamar, Maury and Deane Hundley, John Ware, Larkin Anderson and Dr. W. W. Hume, in full evening dress, were the groomsmen. Mrs.
H. H. Ware presided at the organ. Masters William Adams Ware and Willard Dunbar Hoskins were the ushers.

The bride was gown in white chiffon over white silk, trimmed in real lace.
Her veil was caught with a pearl brooch, which had been worn by the groom's mother on her wedding day, while she wore a necklace of pearls, which had been handed down through the groom's family for more than one hundred years.

Mrs. W. W. Hume and her sister, Mrs.
D. D. Hoskins, each wore white crepe de chine, white satin girdles, and wore white chrysanthemums.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride party returned to "Hoskins's Hill," the home of Willard Dunbar Hoskins, Esq., where an elaborate reception awaited them.

William Latane, of the Episcopal Church of Westmoreland county; Rev.
J. T. Hundley, pastor of the Christian Church, Norfolk; Dr. W. W. Hume and lady, of Raleigh, W. Va.; Mr. Maury Hundley, of Newport News; Mr. Preston Hundley, of Hampton; Mr. Deane Hundley, of Essex; Mr. Larkin Anderson, of Montague; Mr. Lamar Hundley, of Essex; and Judge E. M. Ware and Mr. Charles Sale, of Tappahannock, were among the many gentlemen in attendance; and Miss McCarthy, of Richmond; Mrs. J. T. Hundley, of Norfolk; Mrs. Robert L.

THE ROOT OF THE MATTER.

He Cured Himself of Serious Stomach Trouble, by Getting Down to First Principles.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent business concerns, who had attention to business, too little exercise, and too many club dinners, finally began to pay nature's tax, lived in the form of chronic stomach trouble; the failure of his digestion brought about a nervous, irritability, making it impossible to apply himself to his business, and finally de-ranging the kidneys and heart.

In his own words, he says: "I consulted one physician after another, and each one seemed to understand my case; but all the same, they each failed to bring about the return of my former vigor. I was tired and weak. For two years I went on pill after pill, from one sanitarium to another. I gave up smoking, I quit coffee, and even renounced my daily glass of beer; but without any marked improvement."

"Friends had often advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy, but never took any stock in overrated testimonials, and could not believe a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch my case."

"To make a long story short, I finally bought a couple of packages at the nearest drug store and took two or three tablets after each meal, and occasionally a tablet between meals, when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort."

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health, and before the two packages were gone I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were going to cure completely, and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and cigar, and no one would suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia."

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy, asking for information as to what the tablets contained, and they replied that the principal ingredients were aspartic acid (a natural sweetening principle), and other natural ingredients, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach."

"The root of the matter is this: The digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, regardless of the condition of the stomach, and thus the food is properly digested and the system receives the nourishment which can only come from food. Stimulants and nervine tonics never give real strength; they give a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction, and the system is every nerve and tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action and complete digestion by the regular use of so good and wholesome a remedy as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you will have no need of nervous tonics and antacids."

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years, yet probably every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain now carries them, and considers them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach trouble.

Wright-Casby.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., Nov. 1.—Quite a surprise was experienced in Lynchburg yesterday by the announcement of the marriage of Miss Casby's school, of this city, to Mr. John S. Wright, a Boston, Mass., capitalist. The bride is well known and has a very large circle of friends here, and Mr. Wright is said to be a gentleman of considerable wealth.
After an extended trip to the North, he will return to Lynchburg for a time at least.

LOW GRADE LINE.

Norfolk and Western Companies Valuable Improvements.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 1.—The present expectation is that the Norfolk and Western will have the rails laid and connected on its low grade line about the middle of November, and that the road will open for traffic on December 1st.

The low grade line is an entirely new road along the Sandy River, work on which was commenced in 1902. It is about thirty miles long and was built so as to give the westbound traffic the advantage of low grades. The old line, which is eighty-three miles long, between the same points, will be used principally for the return of eastbound empty cars. The low grade line will permit of an immediate increase of traffic of 50 per cent. more, which will be handled at greatly reduced cost.

PETERSBURG STEAMBOAT

A Company Organized Composed Entirely of Local Men.

RAHILY IN A BAD WAY

In Jail in the Cockade City for Insulting a Young Lady.
Heavily Fined Also.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 1.—Petersburg has a new steamboat company which was organized last evening under the name of "The Petersburg and Norfolk Navigation Company."

The enterprise is backed by well-known and successful merchants of this city and the directorate is composed entirely of Petersburg men. President, T. F. Parsons; Secretary, and Treasurer, W. F.
Bowden, who with Messrs. J. A. Gill, W.
E. Ramey and James Weddell form the board of directors. Messrs. M. C. Jackson and James Weddell were appointed a committee to charter a steamer and obtain a charter for the company.

A NEW BOAT.
Some time ago several gentlemen interested in the enterprise went to Baltimore for the purpose of securing a boat for temporary use. This vessel will begin regular trips between Petersburg and Norfolk, stopping at the intermediate landings, within a few days.

The steamer "Tourist," which was formerly maintained on this route by the People's Steamboat Company, was withdrawn several weeks ago.

The Petersburg Aerie, Order of Eagles, which was recently organized with nearly sixty charter members, held its first meeting to-night at Odd Fellows' Hall.
Captain R. F. Ragland, chief of police, has submitted his October report, showing a total of 157 arrests.

INSULTED YOUNG LADY.
Tim Raubly, a young white man, who came to Petersburg yesterday from Richmond, was arraigned in the Mayor's Court this morning, charged with drunkenness and insulting a young lady on the street.
He was fined $25.00 on two charges and sent to jail for thirty days. Raubly claims Petersburg as his home and says that at the time of his offense he was too drunk to be responsible and remembers nothing about the affair.

Miss Effie Cameron Malone, who was married in Washington to-day to Mr. T.
A. Davidson, Jr., of Manchester, formerly resided in this city.

The Petersburg Grays are making every preparation for the inspection by Colonel J. Lane Stern on next Saturday night and expect to make a fine showing.

FINE SIDEWALKS.

Dispensary Responsible for Excellent Improvements in Pulaski

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PULASKI, VA., Nov. 1.—The Town Council have given Bell and Chapman, of this place, a contract for the construction of fifteen hundred feet of granite sidewalk, a contract for five hundred feet additional, at the same price of the former contract. All sidewalks made and all under contract are eight feet wide, and have enhanced the value of property. The sidewalks had not been for the dispensary. Pulaski would have had board and cinder walks to contend with this winter, instead of the good ones. An effort is being made to get the county to pay half the costs of putting down a granite sidewalk in front of the courthouse, but whether it will be successful or not is not known.

The town built the courthouse and made the county a present of it, and yet the county so far has been unwilling to put down a sidewalk in front of it.

JAMESTOWN PEOPLE MUCH GRATIFIED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., November 1.—It was announced at the office of the James town Exposition Company to-day that since the election of the board of governors subscription collections have been extremely gratifying, and that in the past week the collections have been larger than for any similar period in the past four months.

ELKS' LODGE OF SORROW.

May be Held in New Bijou Theatre—Fine Programme.

Manager Wells has offered the Richmond Lodge of Elks the use of the new Bijou Theatre for the memorial services of that order, which are to be held on the first Sunday in December, provided the new play house is ready for use by that time.

The services upon that occasion promise to be unusually attractive. Mr. Preston Belvin has the arrangements in charge. He has not quite completed his programme.

Mr. Chris Evensen has arranged for uniform dress suits for all Elks, to be worn upon all dress occasions.

ON THE STUMP IN VIRGINIA

Senator Daniel and Congressman Glass Speak in Roanoke.

BACK TO WEST VIRGINIA

Receives an Invitation From Mr.
Davis to Make Another Whirlwind Tour.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., November 1.—Senator John W. Daniel and Congressman Glass spoke at the Academy of Music to-night to the largest Democratic meeting of the campaign. Congressman Glass was introduced by Chairman J. D. Gregory. His speech was mainly devoted to statements in regard to his record in Congress, and answering his Republican critics. He made a strong speech, and was enthusiastically applauded.

Senator Daniel was introduced by Roy B. Smith, and was given an ovation. He discussed briefly the record of the Democratic party in State and Nation.

It was a powerful speech, frequently interrupted by applause.

GOVERNOR AT DILLWYN.

Speaks to Buckingham Democrats and Many Ladies

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DILLWYN, VA., November 1.—Governor Montague made one of his characteristically excellent speeches here at noon yesterday to a large and appreciative audience. Governor Montague was introduced by the ex-chairman of the Democratic party of Buckingham county, Mr. Richard Ellis. He discussed the follies of the Republican party fully, making it so plain that, to use his own expression, "the wayfarer man, though a Republican, might not err therein."

Many ladies were in the audience, and greatly enjoyed the speech, which was characteristic in diction and thoroughly courteous towards the opposing party.

Governor Montague came up from Bremo on a special train Sunday afternoon, and was entertained at the Pryor Hotel.

Politics is the chief topic of the day, and it is believed that the Governor's visit to the little town of Dillwyn will greatly increase the party vote in this section.

WINN-GERARD.

Marriage of Prominent Society Couple in Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 1.—"Jack" Winn, popular in Norfolk society, and first cousin of Marion Lambeth, of St.
Louis, who married Miss Flora Parker, of Richmond, was married quietly to-day to Miss Sarah Harriette Gerard, of Newport News, the granddaughter of the late Dr. James B. Cole, of Newport, a hero of the Norfolk yellow fever epidemic, and a Confederate surgeon.

She is a niece of Hugh L. Cole, who was on Jefferson Davis's staff, and who conducted the investigation with William C. Whitney that broke up the Tweed ring in New York.

Mr. Winn lives in New York, being in the construction department of the Brooklyn navy yard.

Cassell in Giles.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EGGLESTON, VA., Nov. 1.—Judge George E. Cassell, of Radford, spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience at Pembroke last night. About the time the speaking was billed to begin, Senator Noel appeared on the scene in behalf of the Republican cohorts and asked for a division of time, which request was readily granted by the Judge.
He handled his subject and opponent in a masterly way, and left the Democrats at that place exultant and with renewed determination for the success of Wyser and Parker.

To-night the same thing was duplicated at Eggleston, and if coming events cast their shadows before, the old county of Giles will roll up a majority of 300 for Parker and Davis.

Back to West Virginia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., November 1.—Major John W. Daniel has been invited by Vice-Presidential Candidate Henry G. Davis to go on another whirlwind tour over West Virginia this week, and it is probable that the senator will start for West Virginia after his speech in Roanoke tonight.

Mr. Addison Speaks.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PEAKSBURG, VA., Nov. 1.—The Democracy of Giles, and of Pearisburg in particular, was aroused to a point not heretofore known in this campaign, by the speech of Walter E. Addison, Esq., of the Monroe Times, before the Democratic Club of Pearisburg Saturday night.
The large auditorium of the courthouse was completely filled and a number had to stand up to hear the speech.

Mr. Addison was at his best and his exposition of Republican fallacies, was most convincing.

Mr. Addison made a speech before the Democratic Club of Pembroke on last Monday night, and his speech was so favorably received that a large delegation from that place attended the speaking here on Saturday night.

STARTLED THE NATIVES.

Public Initiation of the Pi Mu

"Goats" a Novel Ceremony.

Probably the first public initiation known to Richmond occurred Monday night when the Pi Mu Fraternity, of the University College of Medicine Initiation fine "goats." The initiating ceremony was participated in by the active members and the members in facultate.

The "goats" were white, while the members of the fraternity were in masks, with long, black or white gowns. They marched from the college with the "goats" chained to and carrying a "coffin." The one coming last carried a skeleton and was chained to the front of the coffin.

The march was made from the college to Sixth and Broad Streets, and down Grace Street, each active member holding high a brilliant light, until the party faced the monument of Dr. Hunter Mc-Guire in the Capitol Square.

At the meeting around the monument, short, appropriate talks were made, and beautiful wreaths were placed upon the statue. At the close of this feature of the programme, the body marched to the college, where the initiation was conducted.

After the ceremony the entire body assembled at Murphy's Hotel, where they participated in a delightful smoker.

Dr. A. L. Gray, as toastmaster, introduced the speakers.

The entire ceremony was a grand success for the Pi Mu Fraternity, which, though still young, is one of the strongest in Virginia.

Board of Agriculture To-day.

The Executive Committee of the State Board of Agriculture met in the Library building yesterday and made a thorough examination of the books of the department, and audited the accounts of Commissioner Kolner, which they found correct and supported by the proper vouchers.
Chairman Beverley, of the committee, who is also president of the board, presided over the meeting. All of the members of the committee were present, they being, besides the chairman, Messrs.
Heater, Eggborn, Cowan and Dr. Mc-Bryde.

The board holds its quarterly meeting to-day.
